

IPY Polar Resource Book – Intent to Submit Outreach Initiative for Chapter 4

DEADLINE: JULY 20TH, 2009

Feel free to send more than one submission.

Contact person:

Email:

Country:

Title:

Related IPY project (if appropriate):

Related to the following IPY theme(s):

Atmosphere Ocean Ice Land Space People

This submission is best described by the following approach to outreach (✓):

<input type="checkbox"/> Classroom visits	<input type="checkbox"/> Communicating with media	<input type="checkbox"/> Community-based monitoring
<input type="checkbox"/> Contest or competition	<input type="checkbox"/> Correspondence from the field or lab	<input type="checkbox"/> Creating or enhancing curriculum
<input type="checkbox"/> Creating educational resources	<input type="checkbox"/> Creative writing - fiction, non-fiction, music etc.	<input type="checkbox"/> Educational expeditions
<input type="checkbox"/> Engaging audiences from mid-latitude countries	<input type="checkbox"/> Engaging audiences from Arctic communities	<input type="checkbox"/> Engaging youth in doing outreach
<input type="checkbox"/> Exhibitions – art, photo, dance	<input type="checkbox"/> Festivals	<input type="checkbox"/> Mentoring – students; teachers
<input type="checkbox"/> Music – using music to communicate science and polar issues	<input type="checkbox"/> One-day events	<input type="checkbox"/> Posters
<input type="checkbox"/> Professional development for educators	<input type="checkbox"/> Public presentations	<input type="checkbox"/> Research partnerships – between educators and scientists
<input type="checkbox"/> Professional development of teachers	<input type="checkbox"/> Science fairs	<input type="checkbox"/> Scientific expeditions
<input type="checkbox"/> Video/film	<input type="checkbox"/> Web-based outreach	<input type="checkbox"/> Other?
Specify

Abstract (150-200 words): Briefly describe outreach initiative or approach used based on the glossary provided. Focus on creativity, uniqueness and outcomes.

Selection Process: A committee will review all submissions to determine an appropriate mix of initiatives/approaches to highlight the breadth and depth of IPY outreach. A more detailed template will then be sent to submitters whose activities are selected by the committee.